On February 8, 1903 the Heber Third Ward was created from the Heber East and the Heber West Wards. It consisted of everything South of First South, East of Main Street and South of Second South, West of Main Street, as indicated by the solid line.

In 1947 the Heber Fourth Ward was created by taking from the Heber Third Ward, everything West of Main Street and both sides of Main Street South of Sixth South to about Fourteen South, as indicated by the shaded area — all except Bishop Isabrand Sander's residence.

In 1957 the Heber 6th Ward was created and the area between First and Second South from Main Street to Fifth East was taken from the Heber Third Ward, as indicated by the diagonal lines — except Bishop Ray J. Berg's residence.

On April 29, 1971, the Heber Seventh Ward was created. The two blocks indicated by the dotted area between Second and Third South and between Third and Fifth East were taken from the Heber Third Ward.

On May 26, 1982 the Mill Road Ward was created. Third Ward members living on Mill Road from 600 South to 1200 South were taken from the Heber Third Ward.

The present Ward consists of the white area enclosed by the black dotted lines.
